Description of the Course :

In today's increasingly complex and changing environment that is filled with uncertainty, businesses are continuously looking for better ways to gain and maintain sustainable competitive advantage. Strategic management concerns the long-term direction and scope of the business and draws from business fundamental knowledge, e.g. marketing, finance and economics. Through case studies and stories about successful businesses, students learn about the importance of strategy in any business. The course equips students with the concepts, frameworks, tools and skills needed for developing and implementing strategic decisions to gain and sustain superior performance in both traditional and emerging markets/industries. The course focuses on building the capacity of current and future managers by identifying sources of superior business performance.

Grade Scheme: Graded (HD, D, C, etc.)

Placement Component: No

Supplementary Assessment: Yes

Where supplementary assessment is available a student must have failed overall in the course but gained a final mark of 45 per cent or above and submitted all major assessment tasks.

Graduate Attributes

The Federation University FedUni graduate attributes (GA) are entrenched in the Higher Education Graduate Attributes Policy (LT1228). FedUni graduates develop these graduate attributes through their engagement in explicit learning and teaching and assessment tasks that are embedded in all FedUni programs. Graduate attribute attainment typically follows an incremental development process mapped through program progression. One or more graduate attributes must be evident in the specified learning outcomes and assessment for each FedUni course, and all attributes must be directly assessed in each program
