Description of the Unit:

This intermediate-level unit provides an introduction to media policy, its function in the digital era and its capacity to affect the future. The unit examines key issues and debates about media regulation, freedom and control. Topics include media ownership, globalisation, intellectual property, internet regulation, privacy and online safety. Students explore how policy frameworks respond to these issues and their implications for society. The unit examines policies relating to different mediums and platforms, current and emerging challenges, and their significance in relation to the Australian context.

Grade Scheme: Graded (HD, D, C, P, MF, F, XF)

Work Experience:

No work experience

Placement Component: No

Supplementary Assessment: Yes

Where supplementary assessment is available a student must have failed overall in the Unit but gained a final mark of 45 per cent or above, has completed all major assessment tasks (including all sub-components where a task has multiple parts) as specified in the Unit Description and is not eligible for any other form of supplementary assessment
