Course Content:

This course is the second half of the Honours Thesis, with a focus on carrying out the program of research and writing the final version for submission. The course involves composing a thesis in Humanities or Social Science. Depending on the discipline, the thesis may involve constructing an argument, gathering and analysing data, or producing creative writing with an accompanying exegesis. The course includes managing time to present a coherent line of argument or exploration of a topic for timely submission.

Values:

- V1. Commitment to high standards of scholarly research, critical analysis, communication of knowledge and ideas, and presentation of research that students require for further work in academic research, or to produce research and project work of a high standard in other contexts;
- V2. An ethical approach to research, both in gathering and in presenting original research, and in making use of critical and secondary sources;
- V3. Value constructive criticism, diversity of approaches and interchange of ideas, including through working with a supervisor.

Graduate Attributes

The Federation University FedUni graduate attributes (GA) are entrenched in the Higher Education Graduate Attributes Policy (LT1228). FedUni graduates develop these graduate attributes through their engagement in explicit learning and teaching and assessment tasks that are embedded in all FedUni programs. Graduate attribute attainment typically follows an incremental development process mapped through program progression. One or more graduate attributes must be evident in the specified learning outcomes and assessment for each FedUni course, and all attributes must be directly assessed in each program

Graduate attribute and descriptor		Development and acquisition of GAs in the course
		Learning Outcomes (KSA)	Assessment task (AT#)
GA 1 Thinkers	Our graduates are curious, reflective and critical. Able to analyse the world in a way that generates valued insights, they are change makers seeking and creating new solutions.	K1-K3, S1-S3, A1, A2	AT1
GA 2 Innovators	Our graduates have ideas and are able to realise their dreams. They think and act creatively to achieve and inspire positive change.	K4, S4, A4	AT1
GA 3 Citizens	Our graduates engage in socially and culturally appropriate ways to advance individual, community and global well-being. They are socially and environmentally aware, acting ethically, equitably and compassionately.	K3, S2, S3, A2, A3	AT1
