Description of the Course :

This course is designed to enhance knowledge and skills related to the effective teaching of English in secondary schools. It begins with the examination of personal learning experiences and theoretical perspectives and debates about the purposes of the subject. PSTs will learn about the dynamic nature of literacy and language and will be inspired to teach a range of diverse literary texts. PSTs will learn how to plan, structure and sequence English lessons and to use a range of teaching strategies, resources and assessment approaches to foster the active participation and engagement of all secondary students. PSTs will learn how to develop school students as competent and skilled readers and writers able to participate in conversations about texts.

Grade Scheme: Graded (HD, D, C, etc.)

Supplementary Assessment: Yes

Where supplementary assessment is available a student must have failed overall in the course but gained a final mark of 45 per cent or above and submitted all major assessment tasks.

Graduate Attributes

The Federation University FedUni graduate attributes (GA) are entrenched in the Higher Education Graduate Attributes Policy (LT1228). FedUni graduates develop these graduate attributes through their engagement in explicit learning and teaching and assessment tasks that are embedded in all FedUni programs. Graduate attribute attainment typically follows an incremental development process mapped through program progression. One or more graduate attributes must be evident in the specified learning outcomes and assessment for each FedUni course, and all attributes must be directly assessed in each program
