Course ID:	EDBED3031
Credit Points:	15.00
Prerequisite(s):	(The required level of undergraduate study in the appropriate discipline areas as specified in Specialist Area Guidelines published by the Victorian Institute of Teaching.)
Co-requisite(s):	Nil
Exclusion(s):	(EDDDE3010 and EDMAS6010)
ASCED:	070301

Description of the Course :

This course is designed to prepare students to teach and coordinate health education and promotion in secondary schools. They will explore the development of health education and promotion from an historical and cultural perspective, and will develop an awareness of the health and human development needs of young people, and an appreciation of the impact health education can have on young people and their communities. Pre-service teachers (PSTs) will identify and critically review policies, curriculum, and student centred pedagogies relevant to health education, and apply this knowledge when critiquing and creating health curricula and resources. They will also explore whole school health promotions, and explore educational rationales for Health and personal development education whilst understanding and implementing health outcomes in schools. PSTs will develop teaching strategies and skills relevant to developing a safe, inclusive and supportive health education learning environment.

Graduate Attributes

The Federation University FedUni graduate attributes (GA) are entrenched in the Higher Education Graduate Attributes Policy (LT1228). FedUni graduates develop these graduate attributes through their engagement in explicit learning and teaching and assessment tasks that are embedded in all FedUni programs. Graduate attribute attainment typically follows an incremental development process mapped through program progression. One or more graduate attributes must be evident in the specified learning outcomes and assessment for each FedUni course, and all attributes must be directly assessed in each program

Graduate attribute and descriptor		Development and acquisition of GAs in the course
		Learning Outcomes (KSA)	Code A. Direct B. Indirect N/A Not addressed	Assessment task (AT#)	Code A. Certain B. Likely C. Possible N/A Not likely
GA 1 Thinkers	Our graduates are curious, reflective and critical. Able to analyse the world in a way that generates valued insights, they are change makers seeking and creating new solutions.	K5, S6, A1	A	AT1, AT2	A
