Description of the Unit:

This arts education course is designed for generalist primary classroom teachers. It aims to develop confidence and competency in the arts discipline areas of music, visual art, dance, drama, media, visual communication and design. Arts elements and languages are explored in order for pre-service teachers to build the capacity to design, evaluate and implement contemporary learning and teaching sequences of work in and through both the visual and performing arts discipline areas. A key intention is to develop awareness of the breadth, scope and diversity of Arts education. Pre-service teachers will consider pedagogical practices in the arts that explore how students learn as artists and audience, through making and responding. A range of approaches to contemporary arts-based teaching and learning will be explored. The course will address the capacity of Arts education to communicate ideas about important aspects of contemporary life including identity, community, everyday life, the environment and sustainability. Contemporary and traditional arts practices of Indigenous Australians and people from Asia/Pacific regions will also be explored.

Grade Scheme: Graded (HD, D, C, P, MF, F, XF)

Learning Outcomes:

Knowledge:

- K1. Critique the diversity and value of traditional and contemporary arts, artists and arts practices to individuals and communities throughout the world in contemporary times, with particular emphasis on culture from Indigenous Australia and the Asia/Pacific region.
- K2. Explore how arts elements and language may be used as the foundation for the creation of teaching and learning sequences, resources and assessment strategies.
- K3. Synthesise theoretical perspectives and practical applications with a view towards developing creative, imaginative, knowledgeable and effective contemporary pedagogical understanding in and through the Arts discipline areas of music, visual art, dance, drama, media and visual communication and design.
- K4. Examine key approaches for teaching the visual and performing arts, which consider the perspectives of both artist and audience through making and responding, that also support development of literacy and numeracy.

Skills:

- S1. Design and create innovative and sustainable sequences of work that demonstrate relevant understanding and knowledge of arts-based learning, including appropriate assessment strategies.
- S2. Select, evaluate and contextualise resources, including ICT, appropriate for culturally diverse contemporary arts education experiences across both visual and performing arts that engage students in their learning.
- S3. Explore a range of teaching strategies and experiment with individual and group-based creative activities, sustainable techniques and technologies.
- S4. Articulate the attributes and benefits of the arts and effective arts-based learning in contemporary classrooms.
- S5. Devise teaching strategies that integrate the arts into other areas of the curriculum, and that build subject-specific literacy and numeracy skills.
- S6. Work collaboratively with staff and student colleagues in developing a range of effective teaching strategies and skills within arts education.

Application of knowledge and skills:

- A1. Select, evaluate, contextualise and share a range of readily available resources, communicating their cultural and educational appropriateness for contemporary teaching and learning in the visual and performing arts disciplines of music, visual art, dance, drama, media and visual communication and design.
- A2. Explore, discuss and interpret interwoven concepts, skills and techniques within the context of cooperative arts workshops and experiences, with a view to transmitting understandings to future teaching practice.

A3. Conceptualise and develop an innovative and sustainable sequence of work with lesson plans that demonstrate relevant understanding and knowledge of arts-based learning, with inclusion of arts elements and language and appropriate assessment strategies.

Unit Content:

Topics to be covered

- Develop a basis for creative, arts-literate, critically reflective inquiries which involve both self-directed and collaborative learning.
- Foster understandings of the diverse, unique relationships and outcomes possible between individuals, learning and teaching providers, communities and society through arts practice and arts education.
- Use curriculum, assessment and reporting knowledge for planning effective teaching and learning sequences and assessing in and through the Arts.
- Explore arts-based teaching strategies that integrate the arts into other areas of the curriculum, and that build subject-specific literacy and numeracy skills.
- Examine resources, including ICT, that may be used to support learning and teaching in the Arts.
- Develop confidence and competence in creating, critiquing and sharing visual and performing arts ideas, literacies, processes and outcomes.
- Challenge and extend beliefs and understandings about the environmental, educational, social and cultural significance of the visual and performing arts including contemporary and traditional arts practices of Indigenous Australian artists and artists of the Asia/Pacific region.
- Explore, discuss, evaluate, design and contextualise learning inquiries to create sequences of work with lesson plans in visual and performing arts.
