Institute / School: Institute of Education, Arts & Community

Course Title: HUMANITIES CURRICULUM 2

Course ID: EDMAS6122

Credit Points: 15.00

Prerequisite(s): (EDMAS6022)

Co-requisite(s): Nil

Exclusion(s): (EDMAS6119)

ASCED: 070301

Description of the Course:

This course builds on the concepts and content explored in Humanities Curriculum 1 and further extends the knowledge and skills explored in that course. In this course pre-service teachers will extend their knowledge and understanding of the concepts, substance and structure of the content and teaching strategies related to the Humanities, with a particular focus on senior secondary. They extend their skills in using relevant curriculum frameworks to organise content into effective learning and teaching sequences at the senior secondary level that support student learning. Pre-service teachers extend their knowledge of contemporary issues and debates related to teaching and learning in the Humanities and formulate their own perspectives. They extend their knowledge and skills in designing, implementing and evaluating lessons which support student learning.

Grade Scheme: Graded (HD, D, C, P, MF, F, XF)

Work Experience:

Not wholly work experience: Student is not undertaking work experience in industry or student is undertaking work experience in industry where learning and performance is directed by the provider.

Placement Component: No

Supplementary Assessment: Yes

Where supplementary assessment is available a student must have failed overall in the course but gained a final mark of 45 per cent or above and submitted all major assessment tasks.

Learning Outcomes:

Knowledge:

- K1. Extend knowledge and understanding of the concepts, substance and structure of the Humanities, particularly at senior secondary level and use curriculum frameworks to design effective learning and teaching sequences.
- K2. Critically examine and evaluate resources (including ICT) used to support teaching and learning in the Humanities at the senior secondary level.
- K3. Extend knowledge and strategies for supporting the teaching of literacy and numeracy in the Humanities.
- K4. Extend understandings and skill in applying core teaching practices and teaching strategies to support student learning, particularly at the senior secondary level.
- K5. Extend and apply understandings of assessment strategies to support student learning and monitor student progress, particularly at the senior secondary level.
- K6. Demonstrate understanding of the rationale for continued professional learning, the dispositions required for this and the implications for student learning.
- K7. Demonstrate an ability to critique policy and practice related to the teaching of Humanities, particularly at the senior secondary level, and to reflect on how studying the Humanities enables students to build their understanding of the world.

Skills:

- S1. Compare and contrast ways Humanities subjects are taught in different contexts and critically evaluate their effectiveness.
- S2. Apply knowledge of the concepts, structure and content of the Humanities at senior secondary levels to design learning sequences that cater for student needs.
- S3. Demonstrate skills in teaching, effective classroom communication and the use of strategies to support student learning in the Humanities at senior secondary level.
- S4. Apply curriculum planning frameworks from the senior secondary level to design learning sequences that include processes for assessment.
- S5. Critically examine and investigate policy and practice in schools related to the teaching of the Humanities at senior secondary level.
- S6. Reflect on teaching practice and set goals for future professional learning.

Application of knowledge and skills:

- A1. A professional learning presentation delivered to peers that demonstrates knowledge of the concepts, content and structure of the Humanities at senior secondary level, which draws on core teaching practices and the teaching of subject-specific literacy and numeracy and includes a critical self-evaluation based on feedback and on the dispositions for teaching.
- A2. Design a sequence of lessons including assessment strategies, approaches for catering for diverse learners and accompanying resource materials (including ICT) for senior secondary level of the Humanities.

Course Content:

Topics will include:

- Extending knowledge and understanding of the concepts, substance and structure of the content and teaching strategies in the Humanities, particularly at the senior secondary level.
- Applying skills in using senior secondary curriculum frameworks to design, implement and evaluate effective learning and teaching sequences.
- Applying knowledge of ways to interpret a range of classroom evidence and data to monitor and assess student learning at the senior secondary level.
- A critical examination of resources that can be used to support teaching in the Humanities at the senior secondary level.
- Reflection on the effectiveness of ICT in the Humanities classroom and how it would be used to enhance student learning.
- Investigation into the way that curriculum frameworks are enacted in school contexts.
- Critical reflection on professional learning needs.
- Examination of how the Humanities enables students to learn about the world and their roles as citizens.

FEDTASKS

Federation University Federation recognises that students require key transferable employability skills to prepare them for their future workplace and society. FEDTASKS (Transferable Atttributes Skills and Knowledge) provide a targeted focus on five key transferable Attributes, Skills, and Knowledge that are embedded within curriculum, developed gradually towards successful measures and interlinked with cross-discipline and Co-operative Learning opportunities. One or more FEDTASK, transferable Attributes, Skills or Knowledge must be evident in the specified learning outcomes and assessment for each FedUni course, and all must be directly assessed in each program.
