Unit Title: WRITING STORIES (NON ASSESSED)

Unit ID: HENAA1113

Credit Points: 0.00

Prerequisite(s): Nil

Co-requisite(s): Nil

Exclusion(s): HENAA1003

ASCED: 109999

Description of the Unit:

This unit introduces students to the craft, process and critical practice of storytelling. Through a blend of online mini lectures, readings, discussions, workshops, and creative-critical writing practice, students learn the foundations of storytelling and develop the key skills to shape ideas into wellcrafted narratives. The unit covers a range of compositional techniques, with the focus primarily on prose writing. Reading, writing, re-writing, workshopping and revision will be undertaken by students. The unit includes critical examination of contemporary texts, creative writing theory, critical reflection, writing exercises, structured peer-review and workshopping which are designed to facilitate students' use of creative detail, conscious crafting of formal elements, and critical engagement with the practice and process of writing stories.

Graduate Attributes

The Federation University Federation graduate attributes (GA) are entrenched in the Higher Education Graduate Attributes Policy (LT1228). FedUni graduates develop these graduate attributes through their engagement in explicit learning and teaching and assessment tasks that are embedded in all FedUni Courses. Graduate attribute attainment typically follows an incremental development process mapped through Course progression.

One or more graduate attributes must be evident in the specified learning outcomes and assessment for each FedUni Unit, and all attributes must be directly assessed in each Course
