Description of the Unit:

This unit initially focuses on the role of art in Australian Indigenous cultures from both geographical and historical perspectives. The changing reception and understanding of Indigenous art through the 20th century will be explored along with the associated issues. Contemporary Indigenous art practices will be investigated in relation to the dynamics of visual culture at local, national and international levels. The range of perspectives shaping the interpretation of Indigenous art and representations of Indigenous people will be explored with local Traditional Custodian /Owners' arts practice and knowledge a particular focus. The unit is designed to include, as much as possible, an Indigenous knowledge-centred framework in acknowledgement of the diversity and complexity of First Nations cultures. Students will develop their critical thinking skills and cultural understanding in interpreting contemporary Indigenous art.
