Description of the Unit:

This unit is part of the Bachelor of Professional Accounting, which meets the academic requirements of the accounting profession and leads to a TEQSA approved bachelor degree in Australia. BULAW 3734 seeks to develop a wider and deeper understanding and knowledge of the principles and practice of income tax law in Australia. The unit builds upon the foundations laid in BULAW 3733 Taxation Law 1. Key areas of study include goods and services tax (GST), employee remuneration, fringe benefits tax (FBT), superannuation, ethical decision making and professional conduct rules governing tax agents and the anti-avoidance rules. Tax administration is also discussed including tax collection and withholding, mechanisms, assessments, objections, rulings, penalties and audit. Small business concessions are discussed within relevant topics.
