Description of the Course:
This introductory exploratory workshop builds upon students experience of collaborative creative processes through a range of interdisciplinary practices that may include combinations of generative writing, performance, visual art, movement, digital art, video and music and sound production. This will be undertaken in response to specific provocations, such as site, materials, body, and environment/ecology. The course will assist students to continue to identify, develop and build their sense of creative identity and personal aesthetic and to reflect upon this. Through workshop intensives, led by artist practitioner-teachers, students will be asked to focus on the study of embodied relationship to space and place, to the environment and each other and how that might be expressed through collaborative creative practice. Students will engage in a range of creative activities to activate their potential as artists and critical thinkers and to experience a collaborative process in action.

Grade Scheme:  Graded (HD, D, C, etc.)

Supplementary Assessment:  Yes

Where supplementary assessment is available a student must have failed overall in the course but gained a final mark of 45 per cent or above and submitted all major assessment tasks.

Graduate Attributes

The Federation University FedUni graduate attributes (GA) are entrenched in the Higher Education Graduate Attributes Policy (LT1228). FedUni graduates develop these graduate attributes through their engagement in explicit learning and teaching and assessment tasks that are embedded in all FedUni programs. Graduate attribute attainment typically follows an incremental development process mapped through program progression. One or more graduate attributes must be evident in the specified learning outcomes and assessment for each FedUni course, and all attributes must be directly assessed in each program.
