Description of the Course:
This course analyses selected plays central to the development of drama in the Western tradition, with a critical emphasis on a historical, cultural and performative analysis of these works. As such, it concentrates on the most significant and innovative forms of dramatic literature across history, ranging from Ancient Greek Drama, to Renaissance drama, and developments in dramatic practice and theory in the 20th and 21st centuries. The course elaborates a coherent narrative of the ways in which drama has developed in the Western tradition and investigates how literary and social movements influenced innovative dramatic practice.

Grade Scheme: Graded (HD, D, C, etc.)
Placement Component: No
Supplementary Assessment: Yes
Where supplementary assessment is available a student must have failed overall in the course but gained a final mark of 45 per cent or above and submitted all major assessment tasks.
