Description of the Course:
This course involves an in-depth examination of screen and literary genres which may include noir, fantasy, science fiction, melodrama, gothic, horror and/or comedy, as well as their derivatives and variations. Topics may include the thematic, stylistic and narrative conventions of a particular genre; its intended emotional effect; the historical development of the genre; and the wider social, cultural and economic contexts which have impacted on the production and reception of texts within the genre. Throughout the course we will engage with contemporary film and literary theory in order to explore how a range of social issues, such as gender, race, class, sexuality and violence, are represented and/or commented upon in selected texts.

Grade Scheme:
Graded (HD, D, C, P, MF, F, XF)

Placement Component:
No

Supplementary Assessment:
Yes

Where supplementary assessment is available a student must have failed overall in the course but gained a final mark of 45 per cent or above and submitted all major assessment tasks.

Graduate Attributes

The Federation University FedUni graduate attributes (GA) are entrenched in the Higher Education Graduate Attributes Policy (LT1228). FedUni graduates develop these graduate attributes through their engagement in explicit learning and teaching and assessment tasks that are embedded in all FedUni programs. Graduate attribute attainment typically follows an incremental development process mapped through program...
One or more graduate attributes must be evident in the specified learning outcomes and assessment for each FedUni course, and all attributes must be directly assessed in each program.
