Description of the Course:

This course is a study of a range of historical to contemporary poetry in the English language, focusing on poetic style, form, and genre, as well as literary history and criticism. The course addresses the theory and practice of using poetic techniques, such as symbolism, imagery and figurative language, rhyme, metre and special verse forms. Topics and genres may include traditional verse forms (such as the sonnet, villanelle, or haiku) and free verse. The course is designed to develop skills and confidence in understanding and critiquing poetry, and should be of value to creative writers or anyone working closely with language. Students will be introduced to a range of poetic texts and encouraged to explore and study texts in the context of poetic traditions and genres, as well as to engage directly with the writing of poetic texts in tutorial/workshop mode and/or for assessment.

Grade Scheme: Graded (HD, D, C, P, MF, F, XF)

Placement Component: No

Supplementary Assessment: Yes

Where supplementary assessment is available a student must have failed overall in the course but gained a final mark of 45 per cent or above and submitted all major assessment tasks.

Learning Outcomes:

On successful completion of the course the students are expected to be able to:

Knowledge:

- K1. Critically review theory and practice of poetry in English over time.
- K2. Identify and explore the effects of the key features of various poetic forms.
- K3. Explore distinctions between speaker and poet, ideal and actual reader.
- K4. Define, explain and practice the use of literary terms and techniques in both reading and writing poetry

Skills:

- S1. Demonstrate the significance and effects of poetic elements in specific texts, including metre, rhyme, sound effects, figurative language and diction.
- S2. Compare at an advanced level important elements of form and style, within a holistic/contextual reading of a text.
- S3. Produce high-quality individual works using poetic forms and techniques.
- S4. Practice self and/or peer review and reflective processes in drafting and revising drafts.

Application of knowledge and skills:

- A1. Identify and explain specific elements or effects as contributing to an overall reading of a poem, rather than as separate phenomena.
- A2. Recognise and describe the formal properties of poems, using concepts of genre and intertextuality.
- A3. Construct and develop a clear and coherent argument in written form, using evidence from both primary texts and critical sources.
- A4. Research a genre, period or theoretical approach and compare poems as examples of these.

Course Content:

This course is a study of a wide range of historical to contemporary poetry in the English language, focusing on poetic style, form, genre, and practices in context, from oral storytelling to literary coteries to Slam events. The course addresses the theory and practice of using poetic techniques, such as symbolism, imagery and figurative language, rhyme, metre and special verse forms. It explores the relationship between poet, 'speaker' and readers/audiences, and the ways in which meaning can be created 'between the lines' of a text. It will encourage imaginative and approaches to using and interpreting language in texts, which are strikingly and effectively demonstrated through poetry, but which can be applied across genres, and which permeate almost every aspect of language and culture.

Topics may include:

- traditional ballads, their functions in society, development of the literary ballad, and connections with music and other media
- the study and appreciation of specific techniques used in poetic writing (rhyme, rhythm, metre, line and stanza structures) and figurative language (e.g. imagery, metaphor, symbolism and 'sound effects'), and how these underpin a poem's tone and effect
- verse forms (such as the sonnet, limerick, or haiku) with specific rules beyond those of form, demonstrating the ways in which poet and readers work within understood traditions

- free verse, both historically as a revolution in poetic form and technically as a way of writing poetry, and the related categories of surreal, experimental, and visual poetry
- contemporary spoken word poetry: 'live', Slam events, and in digital media.

Values:

- V1. Reflect critically on personal writing and on that of others
- V2. Appreciate the richness and diversity of poetic texts, speakers and readerships
- V3. Respect the ideas and skills of others
- V4. Appreciate the potential of poetry to stimulate their own thoughts and reflections
- V5. Approach poetry and poetic writing with confidence as a reader.

Graduate Attributes

The Federation University FedUni graduate attributes (GA) are entrenched in the Higher Education Graduate Attributes Policy (LT1228). FedUni graduates develop these graduate attributes through their engagement in explicit learning and teaching and assessment tasks that are embedded in all FedUni programs. Graduate attribute attainment typically follows an incremental development process mapped through program progression. One or more graduate attributes must be evident in the specified learning outcomes and assessment for each FedUni course, and all attributes must be directly assessed in each program

Graduate attribute and descriptor		Development and acquisition of GAs in the course
		Learning Outcomes (KSA)	Assessment task (AT#)
GA 1 Thinkers	Our graduates are curious, reflective and critical. Able to analyse the world in a way that generates valued insights, they are change makers seeking and creating new solutions.	K1-K4, S1-S4, A1-A4	AT1-AT4
GA 2 Innovators	Our graduates have ideas and are able to realise their dreams. They think and act creatively to achieve and inspire positive change.	K4, S3	AT1, AT4
