Description of the Course:
This intermediate-level course aims to develop students awareness of the possibilities of creative nonfiction. This topic has a creative writing focus with a special interest in literary nonfiction as a form that engages with emerging and established genres, overlapping and intermingling genres, tests the boundaries, is experimental and marginal, and that enhances the possibilities for original and engaging writing practices. Through developing their own nonfiction writing, studying course materials, engaging in class discussions and workshop sessions, students will gain experience and confidence as practising writers and scholars of the form. Teaching and learning strategies combine mini online lectures, readings and discussion, writing exercises and writing workshops. Specific nonfiction sub-genres covered may include, personal essay, lyric essay, creative nonfiction (CNF), reviewing, memoir, literary journalism, and ecocriticism.

Grade Scheme: Graded (HD, D, C, P, MF, F, XF)

Supplementary Assessment: Yes

Where supplementary assessment is available a student must have failed overall in the course but gained a final mark of 45 per cent or above and submitted all major assessment tasks.

Graduate Attributes

The Federation University FedUni graduate attributes (GA) are entrenched in the Higher Education Graduate Attributes Policy (LT1228). FedUni graduates develop these graduate attributes through their engagement in explicit learning and teaching and assessment tasks that are embedded in all FedUni programs. Graduate attribute attainment typically follows an incremental development process mapped through program progression. One or more graduate attributes must be evident in the specified learning outcomes and assessment for each FedUni course, and all attributes must be directly assessed in each program.
