Description of the Course:

Who am I? How do I express 'self as artist'? This course is an introduction to the interrelationship between balance, breath and movement and how it impacts the creative artist. It consists of a series of experiential studio based practical activities designed to attune the senses to appreciate the beauty of the three-dimensional ‘self’. We begin with the human design as the central organizing principle that is key to all human activity, the ‘self’ is place of possibility. This place is not restricted by unnecessary tension in either body or the mind, a place where imagination can respond with immediacy, creativity and spontaneity. Students are invited to explore embodied knowledge through the creative practices of Alexander Technique, Neutral Mask, Mark Making, Mindfulness, Meditation, Breath, Voice and Movement.
