COMMD3015 PROFESSIONAL PRACTICE AND DESIGN STRATEGY

Application of knowledge and skills:

A1. Record investigatory material and resource material in journal/ sketchbook
A2. Undertake peer review, reflect and respond to feedback for draft in progress work
A3. Organize, plan and produce a final design solution to a specified design brief within a specified time period
A4. Communicate broad and coherent knowledge of the role Communication Design plays in wider society.
A5. Critically analyse and reflect on Communication Design in both local and international contexts
A6. Work with others in a range of roles and contexts, demonstrating cultural, environmental and social awareness and ethical and reflective practice

Course Content:

In this course students will explore the commercial and professional side of design: how a range of design businesses are set-up and run; the value of design artefacts and concepts; professional, ethical and legal obligations, intellectual property and entrepreneurial strategies.

This course acts as an introduction to the major project undertaken in sixth semester. The project can either be proposed by the student or introduced from an external business or community stakeholder. The proposal is finalised by the end of the fifth semester in consultation with the lecturer and approved before commencement of the sixth semester. Work integrated industry projects are by application only and will be assessed by an industry professional and lecturing staff.

Values and Graduate Attributes:

Values:

V1. Develop a willingness to explore and take creative risks
V2. Appreciate and respect various attitudes and values within contemporary graphic design practice
V3. Value the importance of initiative, enthusiasm and commitment
V4. Respect and practise professional, and responsible behaviour in the workplace
V5. Promote the importance of attention to detail and completion of tasks
