Description of the Course :

This Course progresses performance skills developed by students in Acting Projects 1 and 2. At this advanced level of study, learning will focus on two primary performance strands: Screen Acting and Small Ensemble Projects. Taken together, both strands constitute an in-depth practice-based performative study across mediums. In Screen Acting, students will investigate circumstances governing film performance. In Small Ensemble Projects, students work intensely and collaboratively to produce full stage productions. Material for Small Ensemble Projects may be drawn from a broad range of theatrical genres including musicals, cabaret, self-devised works or pre-existing play texts. Students may be asked to participate in production-related processes and activities.

Grade Scheme: Graded (HD, D, C, etc.)

Work Experience:

No work experience: Student is not undertaking work experience in industry.

Placement Component: No

Supplementary Assessment: Yes

Where supplementary assessment is available a student must have failed overall in the course but gained a final mark of 45 per cent or above and submitted all major assessment tasks.

Course Content:

This Course progresses performance skills developed by students in Acting Projects 1 and 2. At this advanced level of study, learning will focus on two primary performance strands: Screen Acting and Small Ensemble Projects. Taken together, both strands constitute an in-depth practice-based performative study across mediums. In Screen Acting, students will investigate circumstances governing film performance, from terminology to space and equipment. They will develop a thorough working knowledge of acting processes involved in developing performance for camera and apply this by creating high-level screen performance. In Small Ensemble Projects, students work intensely and collaboratively to produce full stage productions. They acquire an in-depth understanding of constituent dramaturgical elements, rehearsal techniques and how to translate skills acquired during rehearsals into high level stage performance. Material for Small Ensemble Projects may be drawn from a broad range of theatrical genres including musicals, cabaret, self-devised works or pre-existing play texts. Students may be asked to participate in production-related processes and activities.

Values:

- V1. Discipline, independence, respect, trust, generosity and focus
- V2. Personal and group ethics
- V3. Professional attitude to all aspects of their work
- V4. Take creative risks in goal oriented activities
- V5. Creative initiative and leadership abilities
- V6. Flexibility, openness, and the ability to express with imagination and conviction
- V7. Receptivity to artistic feedback and the capacity to provide constructive feedback to other artists.

Graduate Attributes

The Federation University FedUni graduate attributes (GA) are entrenched in the Higher Education Graduate Attributes Policy (LT1228). FedUni graduates develop these graduate attributes through their engagement in explicit learning and teaching and assessment tasks that are embedded in all FedUni programs. Graduate attribute attainment typically follows an incremental development process mapped through program progression. One or more graduate attributes must be evident in the specified learning outcomes and assessment for each FedUni course, and all attributes must be directly assessed in each program

Graduate attribute and descriptor		Development and acquisition of GAs in the course
