Course Content:

This course incorporates techniques of various dance and physical theatre forms. Dance styles taught may include: jazz/music theatre dance, contemporary dance, tap, classical ballet, improvisation and movement. Solo work, collaborative creation and variety in style and form will feature more distinctively than earlier dance courses.

Skills covered may include: stretching techniques, turning, isolation, and complementary movement, as well as the interpretation of various historic and contemporary dance pieces. Dance vocabulary will be learned in class and may be expressed through small group choreographed sequences, mock auditions and improvised physical theatre.

Values:

V1. Take responsibility for own physical development
V2. Develop a sense of the body and its limitations
V3. Understand the need for self-discipline
V4. Further develop safe dance practices
V5. Develop personal working processes
V6. Cultivate flexibility and openness as well as the ability to express oneself with conviction
V7. Develop an appreciation of dance and movement in relation to the theatre and other art forms
V8. Develop an understanding of the historical context of various dance forms within music theatre.

Graduate Attributes
The Federation University FedUni graduate attributes (GA) are entrenched in the Higher Education Graduate Attributes Policy (LT1228). FedUni graduates develop these graduate attributes through their engagement in explicit learning and teaching and assessment tasks that are embedded in all FedUni programs. Graduate attribute attainment typically follows an incremental development process mapped through program progression. One or more graduate attributes must be evident in the specified learning outcomes and assessment for each FedUni course, and all attributes must be directly assessed in each program.
