Description of the Course:

Students will participate in a 500-hour (minimum) Field Education placement which will facilitate advanced integration of theory, practice and research. Students will extend their knowledge and skills required for professional practice as Social Workers at an advanced level. This will enable them to critically evaluate and apply appropriate intervention strategies. Students will be expected to advance their knowledge and apply social work values, ethics, roles and responsibilities and reflect on their growing professional identity. Integrative seminars will assist and support students throughout this process, and provide opportunities for reflective practice, shared learning and mutual support.

Graduate Attributes

The Federation University FedUni graduate attributes (GA) are entrenched in the Higher Education Graduate Attributes Policy (LT1228). FedUni graduates develop these graduate attributes through their engagement in explicit learning and teaching and assessment tasks that are embedded in all FedUni programs. Graduate attribute attainment typically follows an incremental development process mapped through program progression. One or more graduate attributes must be evident in the specified learning outcomes and assessment for each FedUni course, and all attributes must be directly assessed in each program
