Course Outline

VATHR1011 VISUAL CULTURE - AN INTRODUCTION

Course Content:

This course introduces students to the study of visual culture. Concepts such as creativity, presentation and mediation will be considered along with an investigation of critical writing and visual critique. The historical and aesthetic characteristics of works of art and design produced during selected artistic periods will be utilised to demonstrate how and why we create, value and engage with art. Students are expected to develop a range of critical, analytical and research skills.

Values and Graduate Attributes:

Values:

V1. Value cooperative and positive learning experiences.
V2. Appreciate the benefits of life-long learning
V3. Accept a broad range of views and perceptions.
V4. Value creativity as a rewarding and worthwhile personal and social activity.
V5. Appreciate the purposeful social and personal role that art may play.
V6. Promote confidence in utilising cognitive, affective and appreciative skills in respect of visual analysis.
